THE NEW WAR IN THE SOUTH.

If there is any one thing that helped the south more than another it is the tariff. Without the fostering of the industrial enterprise in that section of the country where slavery, and that alone, was its pride, there would have been no Birmingham, no Atlanta to rise from its ashes, and no cities to double their populations in five years. The south has made marvelous strides since the old democracy with its slavery has been driven from it, and its present industrial push and vim are some of the splendid results of the tariff. But the Louisville Courier-Journal, which damns its party every week for not throwing every protection democrat overboard, pays the south this compliment:

"Behind the workings of this fall spirit (that of the tariff) lies one single, simple thought, and that is how to make a dollar without earning it, and thus to get rich on other people's money. The scoundrel in Birmingham who seeks to buy land at $10 an acre expecting, after certain familiar manipulations, to capture it and sell it at $50 a foot, not morally any better than the scoundrel in Boston who wrecks the firm of which he is a partner, and runs away with his partner's wife, who has given a penny who is hard to be cuntry-handed. In different ways the Master Devil has each by the ears. Yet the two illustrate how the modern gospel of Mammon has converted old-fashioned villainy into new-fashioned enterprise."

THE DOOMED ANARCHISTS.

The decision of the supreme court of Illinois, sustaining the decisions of the trial court in the case of the Chicago anarchists, meets with a hearty endorsement by all classes who believe in the American idea of government. The condemned have a faint hope in the supreme court of the United States to which trial the case will now be appealed.

The decision of the Illinois court, a brief mention of which was announced in last evening's Gazette, will be found in full on the second page of this paper. Reviewing this decision, the Chicago Times truly says: "This is the second and final decree of justice, affirming the integrity of a righteous law, and of faithful ministers of the law, and determining that the law which has been made for the protection of society shall be executed for the protection of society."

"There is in the realm of the finite no other possible way of existence. Either men must live in the social state or they must cease to live, and the fundamental condition of their life in society is the respect of each for the lives of all. Whoso violates this condition of existence forfeits the right to exist."

The human law that sanctions the extermination of the assassin is but the application of the divine law that has made the life in society the only possible life of man on the earth."

"This is about the language which Mr. Watterson has been applying to all men in the south who have gone into any business and made any money. The iron men, the men who had been reduced to poverty by the war, and turned to mining coal and making iron as a means of making a living, have been denounced as thieves and robbers, and if they have had any success and made anything beyond a living they have been bunched, and the whole language used toward them; and this because they got the benefit of laws that apply to the citizens of the United States alike. Ever since Mr. Watterson, by his war, has reduced the majority in the lower State from $9,000 down to 15,000 and reduced the majority of the most popular man in the state down to a contest election; got Mr. Morrison beaten and Frank Ward beaten, and the southern democratic papers, with only two or three exceptions, refusing to follow him into the active help and support of the British 'money devil'—Since all this, he has become simply unbearable."

The southern people are trying hard to recover their lost ground. They are engaged in a double pursuit—making war for the South and selling it, for the South and selling it, for the South and making iron—but it is not a robor. This has been going on for years, and the southern people have borne it, hoping and fearing it was a temporary craze.

The south could never have recovered its lost ground except by the influences of protective industry; and yet there are Wattersons, and Hards, and Morrisons enough to denounce as robbery every prosperous manufacturing establishment in the north or south. This is the war going on among the democratic politicians and manufacturers in the south as well as in the north, and it is very timely for the Boston Globe, the official organ of the democratic party of Massachusetts, to suggest:

President Cleveland, as a natural head of the democratic party, and its all but certain standard-bearer in 1888, has to face this as his first duty—the harmonizing of both wings and their leaders upon the question of the tariff. It is the vital issue of the day; it is the indispensable problem before us, and it will be the leading battle-ground next year.

The aggregate loss of life by the destruction of places of amusement has been appalling, as shown by the returns gathered by the French Statistical society, and published in the early part of last year. During the period covered by these returns—which embraced the whole civilized world and included 135 years—632 theatres had been destroyed by fire, and the number of victims was 6,573, or an average of 48 a year, which, when the vast number of playgoers is taken into account, does not seem a very enormous sacrificial tribute to the god of pleasure. But the average does not represent the true state of the case, for the sum-total of lives annually lost has progressed uniformly (with the exception of the year 1845, when 1,870 perished with the theatre at Caen) till it reached as high as 1,217 for the decade 1870-80. Moreover, of the 632 theatres, no fewer than 174 were burned during the five years from 1881 to 1885 inclusive. It is true, of course, that the number of theatres and of those who have attended them has of late years tremendously increased, and so to a certain extent has the care which provides against fire and loss of life; but the latter bears no sort of proportion to the former, whence it should at least be equivalent.

NEW YORK REPUBLICANS.

The republican state convention in New York was held at Saratoga yesterday. Hon. Warner Miller presided.

Col. Fred D. Grant, eldest son of the great general, was unanimously nominated for secretary of state; Jesse S. Lamoreau, of Saratoga, for comptroller; James H. Carmichael, of Erie, for treasurer; James A. Deutscher of Fulton, for attorney general; and O. H. P. Cornell for state engineer and surveyor. The convention was unanimous throughout.

The platform begins by stating that the republican party seeks restoration to power in the nation and state, and reclaims its record and that of the democratic party since its accession to power as reasons therefore, claiming for the former "success in war, pacification and restitution, and in executive, legislative and financial achievements," and charging upon the latter "incapacity and inefficiency in administration and legislation," and "the egregious blunders of the executive and the democratic branch of congress."

It continues:

"Two and a half years of a democratic president who has had the cooperation of an overwhelming majority in the house of representatives, where, under the constitution all revenue measures must originate, have exposed the incapacity of the democratic party, and the weakness of the democratic policy, under which so much has been promised the people, but from which we have only been broken pledges, failure to promote the public welfare, no plan to reduce the revenue, or to reduce expenditures; no purpose to promote a practical civil-service reform or otherwise to improve the public service; while conspicuous among the many short-comings of the administration are numerous appointments who have proven faithless and incompetent; the postal service disorganized and its efficiency impaired, and the public business in other departments given to loan. G. E. Bowles.

NEW YORK'S CHOICE.

The Ticket Nominated by the Republican Convention.

COLONEL FRED GRANT AT ITS HEAD.

He is Named for Secretary of State—The Platform for Protection, Restricting Immigration and Local Option.

CLEVELAND CRITICIZED.

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y., Sept. 15.—The Republican State convention was held yesterday in this city. Ex-Senator Warner Miller presided. The following ticket was nominated:

Secretary of State, Colonel Fred D. Grant; Comptroller, Jesse S. Lamoreau, of Saratoga; Treasurer, James H. Carmichael, of Erie; Attorney-General, James A. Deutscher, of Fulton; State Engineer and Surveyor, O. H. P. Cornell.

The platform is lengthy. A synopsis is as follows:

OUTRAGE, Colorado, September 16.—Yesterday afternoon Joe Dixon, a colored cook in one of the hotels of this city, shot Miss Ella Day, a waiting girl, four times, inflicting fatal injuries. Dixon was immediately arrested and put in jail. At an early hour this morning a large mob of citizens attempted to take him out of the jail to lynch him. In this they failed to even gain entrance. This so enraged the mob that the jail was set on fire. The Ouray fire department was called out, and in their attempt to extinguish the flames the negro was drowned and his body rosted in the burning building.

SPARKS FROM THE WIRES.

A Budget of Interesting Facts Cleared from the Telegraph and Mail.

M. Royer, the French automaton, is said to be on the point of resigning.

The output of the Minneapolis flour mills last week was 150,000 barrels. The market is firm, healthy and fairly active.

Blankenbush organ, the North German Gazette, demands protection for the German silk industry in the shape of heavy duties on imported silk.

The City Council of Fort Wayne, Ind., has decided to condemn the canal feeder, which taps the St. Joseph river five miles from the city, for a permanent water supply.

Major Toninis and Captain Schindler, of the Hungarian army, have been arrested for fraud in the construction of Captain Schindler's canal. The Hungarian government has condemned the trial. Captain Toninis, of the 10th Cavalry, was wounded Tuesday night by a rebel bullet, but escaped, though severely wounded, and is now recovering.

Minority resolutions to submit the liquor question to a popular vote in the counties containing large cities and favoring high license were defeated.

LUKE P. BLACKBURN.

Death at Frankfort, Ky., of Kentucky's Ex-Governor—Sketch of His Life.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Sept. 15.—Ex-Governor Luke P. Blackburn passed quickly away yesterday at his residence here, surrounded by friends and relatives. For a month past his death had been expected at almost any moment. Bright's disease and ossification of the valves around the heart were the immediate causes of death.

Ex-Governor Blackburn was born in Woodford County June 15, 1814, and graduated in medicine at Transylvania University, Lexington, in 1836. He was admitted to the bar the same year. Almost immediately a terrible epidemic broke out, and Dr. Blackburn raised it in his life among the suffering who nearly all his brother physicians had deserted the post. He was elected to the Legislature in 1838, and served in it during the war with Mexico. After the war he fought under General Sterling Price. After the war he did heroic work in several epidemics, and in 1853 was elected Governor by 40,000 majority.

LUKE P. BLACKBURN.

VETERANS AT DETROIT.

The Army of the Tennessee Honors General Logan and Elects His Son a Member.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 15.—At the first annual meeting of the Army of the Tennessee yesterday it was shown that the society is free from debt and has invested $11,000 in Government bonds. John A. Logan, Jr., was elected to the vacancy caused by the death of General Logan, and General William B. Woods whose death occurred since the last reunion. General O. M. Poe read an interesting paper on the military movements on the Northern frontier during the war of 1812. At two o'clock a fine parade of 1,200 men took place. The annual exercises took place last night at Princess Park. Governor Ladd directed the address of welcome, and the corona was given by Colonel Augustus Jackson, of Chicago.

LIQUOR AND THE LODGE.

Masons Suspended for Holding Saloon-Keepers to Eligible Members.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 15.—The aquatic of the French Guards, Hotel de Ville, and St. Louis Masons by Nautical Lodge of Masons on a charge of being unfit for membership by reason of their business of saloon-keeping has caused the arrest of the lodge's charter. The question raised is not one of prohibition, but temperance, and the decision of Nautical Lodge was deemed a slap at the Grand Lodge, which held that saloon men could not, from the nature of their business and association, carry on a temperance organization of the kind for the protection of the public from the use of intoxicants. The matter will come up before the Grand Lodge October 12, but in the meantime Nautical Lodge is wiped out of existence.

THE MANITOBA ROAD.

The Government's Scheme to Prevent Its Construction—A Long-Sought.

WINNIPEG, Man., Sept. 15.—According to an Ottawa dispatch the Dominion Government is preparing to employ heroic measures to bring to heel the obnoxious Manitobans who are to the railroads what the Sioux are to the Indians.

THE MANITOBA ROAD.

Washington, Sept. 15.—Yesterday afternoon Nathan Young shot his beloved wife, and after an ineffectual attempt upon her son's life committed suicide. Young was formerly a reputable man, but is said to have been driven to desperation by his wife's infidelities. Her injuries are not serious.

PURCHASING THE BONDS.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Tenders for $2,175,000 were made yesterday for the purchase of the Treasury Department's gold bonds at prices varying from $1,07,951.00 to $1,10. Of this amount $1,109,500 was taken, the maximum price paid being $1,08.74-100.

IRON-WORKERS Granted a Charter.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 15.—The General Executive Board of the Knights of Labor has issued a charter to the new National Trade Assembly of Iron-Workers. This avails the threatened withdrawal of the trade from the order.

COUPLED Veterans Want a Pension.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Several veterans soldiers who are confined in the Wisconsin penitentiary at Waupaca have asked General Black to have a law passed granting each of them a pension of three dollars a week.

COUPLED Veterans Taxed.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 15.—Governor Gordon has signed the wine-room bill, which imposes a tax of $10,000 on all wine-rooms.

Greatly Excited.

Not a few of the citizens of Janesville have recently become greatly excited over the astonishing facts, that several of their friends who had been pronounced by their physicians as incurable and beyond hope—suffering with that dread monster Consumption—have been completely cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, the only remedy that does positively cure all throat and lung diseases. ## SPECIFICATIONS

For Laying Wood Pavement on West Milwaukee Street.

That portion of West Milwaukee street in the city of Milwaukee, between the 10th and 11th streets, and the western end of the bridge over rock river, is to be graded, curbed and paved in accordance with the work of said street as specified in the said specifications, except where the grade of said street will necessarily have to be changed at the height of the bridge.

GRADING

Under the head of grading shall be included the taking up and removing from the street the old paving, and uprooting and removing the trees and shrubs growing on said street; and the excavating and removal from said street of earth, sand or gravel, and the filling of said street with earth, sand or gravel, and the special committee appointed by the Mayor of said city, shall see that the sub-grade of said street, is so graded, that the surface grade of said street will necessarily be mounted above the surface of the natural surface grade of said street, so as to prevent any water from running off said street, filling as required to complete the grading thereof to said grade as determined, that the special committee to be appointed by the Mayor of said city shall direct, that no earth, sand or gravel, or stones and stones, shall be used, except in the paving, or in the filling of said street, in addition to being thoroughly tamped. In all places where trenching has been done for water-pipes, pipes, etc., and in the filling of said street, such portions of said street shall be made firm and secure, so as to prevent any settling or subsidence; and it shall be the duty of the special committee to be appointed by the Mayor of said city, to see that the gravel on said street is as little as possible consistent with the speed and economical prosecution of the work of grading and paving said street.

CURBING

If any portions of the stone curbing along the margins of the sidewalks of said street shall be found by the special committee to be defective for the purpose intended, and they shall direct such suitable curbing to be replaced by new curbing, formed of good, sound and durable Wisconsin limestone, free from any stones, and not less than four inches thick. The tops of said curbstones are to be dressed to a right angle, and the ends of said curbstones, one inch from their tops, shall be dressed to a depth of fifteen inches, and to form close joints, when the same are to be set in the earth, and the earth on the ends of said curbstones, to conform to the alignment and grade given by the special committee to be appointed by the Mayor of said city, so that the paving stones will be laid in the paving, at least six inches thick, well tamped and to be thoroughly packed with sand and gravel.

STYLING

The surface of said street having been brought in to the sub-grade of the same, and its surface, for a depth of at least four inches, covered with good, clean sand or fine gravel, well and thoroughly tamped, there shall be laid in right angles, curbstones, of a center, good, sound, coarse, durable plus, & square, one inch thick, eight inches wide, and sixteen feet long, to be set in the earth, and to be appointed by the Mayor of said city, so that the top surface of said stones, and the curbstones, shall be in the same horizontal line, and the sand and gravel between them shall be carefully dressed with a straight edge, so that the paving stones may be laid in the paving, and the paving stones shall present a smooth, compact and uniform surface, conforming to the sub-grade of said street, on which they are to be laid.

PAVING

On the strings, and the intermediate filling of sand or fine gravel between them, shall be a paving, formed of good, sound and durable Wisconsin limestone, free from any stones, and not less than four inches thick, two inches thick, and from eight to twelve inches long, and the paving stones, shall be laid lengthwise of the street, so as to connect with each other, and to be laid in the paving, at least six inches thick, well tamped and to be thoroughly packed with sand and gravel.

FLUSHING

On the strings, and the intermediate filling of sand or fine gravel between them, shall be a paving, formed of good, sound and durable Wisconsin limestone, free from any stones, and not less than four inches thick, two inches thick, and from eight to twelve inches long, and the paving stones, shall be laid lengthwise of the street, so as to connect with each other, and to be laid in the paving, at least six inches thick, well tamped and to be thoroughly packed with sand and gravel.

—Mr. F. A. Randall has disposed of the Waukesha Freeman and will go into the hotel business, having taken possession of the American house at Waukesha. If he succeeds as well at the hotel business as he has in running a live newspaper, Waukesha is sure of a well kept hotel.

—Iowa parties are pushing a lively series of lawsuits against Dr. E. N. Fishback, formerly of this city. The suits involve about one thousand dollars worth of notes and accounts and are now pending in Minneapolis where the doctor lives. J. B. Doe, of this city, is one of the plaintiff's attorneys.

—There will be a great running race at the Janesville Driving Park track Wednesday of next week, between two fast horses owned in Shullsburg. The horses are matched for a purse of $500 a side, as the outcome of a dispute between the owners. The race will take place in the afternoon. Pools will be sold at 11:30 a.m.

—Mr. F. Kemmerer, of the town of Turtle, left at the Gazette office this morning, samples of apples, gathered from his orchard, which compares very favorably with the product of fruit-growing states. Mr. Kemmerer has about ten acres of orchard, and in spite of the drought, will gather from two to three hundred bushels of apples. He has some thirty varieties of fall and winter fruit, many of them very choice.

—Charles Gage, until lately clerk in the United States Express Company's office is now messenger for the company between Milwaukee and Mineral Point. George Dickinson, the former messenger is running between Milwaukee and Ashland. These changes have not yet been made permanent, however, as they depend somewhat on whether the express company extends its lines over the Lake Shore & Western.

—"A good deal of talk about hard times," said a Milwaukee street merchant this morning, "comes from people that grumble and groan anyway. They never feel satisfied; and unless they look forward all the time and prophecy a dearth in the poorhouse they don't feel natural. Seems to me trade this year has been fully as good as it was last year if not better. Of course our accounts with farmers are not so large, but otherwise there is no difficulty whatever."

—The many friends of Mr. S. A. Dean, an old resident of the town of Castle, but now living at 200 Mineral Point avenue, will be pleased to learn that he has again recovered his health. Mr. Dean suffered for years from spinal complaint much of the time being almost helpless. At the recommendation of a friend he was persuaded to go to Cleveland, Ohio, and consult F. W. Urran, an eminent specialist, having had twenty-five years' experience in Boston. Dr. Jones and Clover Tonio quickly cured the above disease. Can be fitly called the most delicate. Fitted by Dr. Prentiss & Evanson.

—A FEAT IN DECORATION.

The management of the Chicago opera house, last Saturday and Monday evening, accomplished an unparalleled feat in the way of rehabilitating a theatre.

The great audience had no sooner emerged from the building, after witnessing the 120th and last performance of the "Arabian Nights," than an army of carpenters, painters, upholsterers, and the like surged into the vacated auditorium, and in half an hour, the theatre, brilliantly lighted was swarming with a busy brood of artisans who worked away for twelve hours.

—The men were changed at regular intervals in order to permit of rest, but no party was allowed to remain vacant. Operations were brought to a satisfactory termination at 4:30 Monday afternoon, in ample time for the opening of the doors three and one-half hours later, when Mr. Keene opened the regular season of the house with "Richesten."

—The Beloit Free Press is trying hard to cast reflections upon our efficient sheriff, Silas Ward, on account of the dismissal from the county jail of Ryan the notorious tramp sent up from Beloit for ninety days. In this the Free Press will not succeed. Ryan was perfectly rotten with disease—a loathsome disease—and it was for the protection of the other prisoners in the jail, as well as the jail officials, that the county physician counseled the sheriff to turn him out. Instead of sending Ryan to the county jail to be doctored at his expense, the Beloit authorities should have sent him to the city hospital, knowing that the jail is not used for that purpose. Sheriff Ward did exactly right, and just what the Free Press editor would do under like circumstances. The Beloit authorities had better now send Ryan to the Ouray (Colorado) fire department. They can take care of him. But please don't accuse Sheriff Ward, because the people are on the side of the sheriff, and will stand by him.

—AMONG THE BLIND.

The Largest Attendance Ever Known at the Institute This Year.

When the School for the Blind opened yesterday, it had considerably less than seventy pupils. New ones kept coming, however, and the number is now almost eighty. This attendance has never been equalled at the opening of a term since the school room was founded. From past experience it is safe to say that before the end of the month Mrs. Little will have under care between ninety and one hundred pupils.

Careful attention to the diet is the best guard
